

Life at Night

Every night as we are sleeping, many animals are wide awake. They are searching for food, playing and making new homes. These animals are called nocturnal animals.

Tampa Bay Bats needs our help! They have asked us to help educate other visitors to the center about nocturnal animals. How can we advocate for the bats of Tampa Bay?